

Dear Colleagues,

NATA, the Network for the Advancement of PBM, Haemostasis and Thrombosis, is providing 12 Trainee Travel Grants to attend the annual congress NATA24 in Bologna, Italy, 18-20 April (<https://nataonline.com/annual-symposium/>), application deadline 15 January.

Please would you share the information with your members to ensure that your young colleagues have the opportunity to attend the most important PBM event in Europe, learn about best clinical practice in patient blood management (PBM), the management of anaemia and iron deficiency, critical bleeding and thrombosis from the greatest international experts.

Important deadlines:

- Trainee Travel Grant - 15 January
- Abstract Submission - 31 January
- Early Bird - 14 February

More information - <https://nataonline.com/annual-symposium/>

Thank you for your support and partnership.

Should you need further information please do not hesitate to contact us. We look forward to many of your members joining us in Bologna in April.

Yours sincerely,

Prof Jens MEIER Chair NATA Chair and Head of Anaesthesiology and Intensive Care Department of Medicine, Johannes Kepler University and Kepler University Hospital Linz, Austria	Prof Sigismund LASOCKI Chair NATA Scientific Committee Head of Anaesthesiology & Critical Care Department, University Hospital Angers Angers, France President, College of Professors of Anaesthesiology and Critical Care of France
---	--